

2 museums feature students' artwork

On both sides of the state line, area residents are celebrating the creative talents of high school students.

At the Preble County Fine Arts Center in Eaton, Ohio, the work of Preble County high school students went on display April 6.

Awards will be presented to Ohio students at 7 p.m. Tuesday at the art center, 101 Hillcrest Drive, across from Eaton High School.

At the Richmond Art Museum, the works of Wayne County students go on display Sunday.

A reception and awards ceremony from 1 to 4 p.m. Sunday will open the exhibition at the museum, 350 Hub Etchison Parkway.

Last year, about 550 people attended the opening of the All Wayne County High School Art Show, said Lance Crow, education director at the Richmond Art Museum.

Monetary awards for students will come from a grant from the Wayne County Foundation.

The Wayne County show will be on display through May 20. Gallery hours are 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. Tuesday through Friday and 1 to 4 p.m. Sunday.

The Preble County show will continue through April 28. The gallery is open 1 to 5 p.m. Tuesday through Saturday.

Advertisement

ORIGINAL HP INKS. GET MORE.

LEARN MORE AT HP.COM

