

$5,000 grant will help maintain greenway

Pictured with the equipment are, from left, trail rangers Mark Houser and Curtis Wong, steering committee member John Zetzl, foundation director Steve Borchers, committee members Russel Hite and Mike Statzer, director Denise Retz, committee member Jeff Markley, Jeremy Armstrong of Smith Implements, and committee members George Stallings and Todd Barker. SUPPLIED PHOTO

The Wayne County Cardinal Greenway Steering Committee recently used a $5,000 grant from the Wayne County Foundation to buy maintenance equipment from Smith Implements for use on the 26 miles of trail in the county.

“As we’ve rolled from being a fundraising organization, we’ve morphed into being a construction organization, and now we’re moving into looking for ways to maintain the trail, says

Lee Elzemeyer, committee president.

For information on how individuals or organizations can donate or volunteer to help maintain the greenway, visit www.cardinalgreenways.org.