

Grant helps local genealogy society store information

The members of the Wayne County Genealogical Society (WCGS) wants to sincerely thank the Wayne County Foundation for their generous grant.

The grant was awarded last November and since that time, we have been able to use the funds to purchase two new computer work stations, much needed shelving and archival quality paper supplies.

The WCGS is a not-for-profit organization that maintains a large collection of genealogical records, documents and materials relating o the ancestors who lived in the East-Central Indiana area. Our funds are limited and the two generous grants that we have received from the Wayne County Foundation have allowed us to update our storage and efficiently maintain these valuables, unique and historic materials.

Thank you, Wayne County Foundation! Your contribution to our community is priceless!
