The Ruth J. Wickemeyer Award for Community Service

The Wickemeyer Award recognizes paid or volunteer not-for-profit leaders who personify exceptional service to others in the name of community progress. Candidates must demonstrate a history of significant service in the Wayne County not-for-profit community, an unswerving commitment to the highest ethical standards, and evidence of articulating a vision for community improvement by their leadership and/or significant accomplishment.

Please note: The committee will not accept as complete any nomination that uses résumés, newspaper articles, annual reports, etc. in substitution for complete responses to the questions. A maximum of three (3) letters of recommendation will be accepted with the nomination. Please address the following points of qualification using up to three additional typed sheets. Return to the Foundation by Monday, April 16, 2007.

- 1) Specific description of time and effort contributed, financial support given and/or received as a result of those efforts.
- 2) Description of specific achievements such as new programs launched, problems addressed, etc.
- 3) Evidence of encouragement and motivation given to others to take leadership roles toward philanthropy and community involvement.
- 4) Please describe any other pertinent achievements, accomplishments, or qualifications.
