Wayne County Foundation to Present Workshop

On Thursday, November 10, Phil Purcell, Ball State Foundation, will conduct a workshop that qualifies for three hours of ethics continuing education credits for attorneys, accountants, LUTCF, CLU, and ChFC, as well as three hours of general education credits for CFPs and trust officers. Actual case studies will be used to explain legal and ethical violations in the use of tax exempt organizations and charitable gifts.

Breakfast and networking begins at 7:30 a.m., followed by the presentation at 8:00 a.m.

Cost for the seminar, which will be held at Forest Hills Country Club, is $50 per person on registrations received by September 30. After September 30, the price is $75.

Reservations are required. To RSVP, contact the Foundation at 765-962-1638 or lisa@waynecountyfoundation.org
