Wayne County Foundation to Present Women's Leadership Conference

On October 14, the Wayne County Foundation will present the fourth annual Women's Leadership Conference at the Fountain City Wesleyan Church. The one-day conference will feature dynamic local and regional speakers covering a variety of topics that are pertinent to today's women including successful retirement planning, building rapport, developing leadership skills, and creating positive change.

The cost for the conference, which begins at 8:30 a.m., is $25 before September 14, $35 after that date. Reservations are required no later than September 30. Space is limited.

For more information and to view the conference brochure, visit the Wayne County Foundation website at www.waynecountyfoundation.org or contact Rachel Hughes at the Foundation. 765.962.1638 or rachel@waynecountyfoundation.org.
