FOUNDATION AWARDS OVER $84,700 IN LATEST GRANT CYCLE FOR COMMUNITY ACTIVITIES AND EDUCATION

The Wayne County Foundation has awarded $84,794.24 to twenty-two organizations in the community activities and education categories during their August grant cycle.

All of the Foundation's community grantmaking is made possible by income from unrestricted and field-of-interest endowment funds.

"The programs and initiatives we were able to fund this cycle represent a wide range of needs and interests," said Steve Borchers, the Foundation's executive director. "As always, we look for those proposals that will leverage our investment in some way and create something for the community that will have a farther reaching effect than just the project itself."

The complete list of grant awards follows:
