WAYNE COUNTY FOUNDATION OFFERS FREE GRANT WORKSHOP

The Wayne County Foundation will again offer its free workshop "Writing Effective Proposals".

This workshop is designed for Wayne County nonprofit organizations that would like to apply for a Wayne County Foundation grant but are unsure how to proceed - - or for those who have previously submitted a proposal that was not funded.

Paid and volunteer leaders are welcome.

The workshop will include:

- a brief overview of the Foundation, its work and mission and funding criteria;
- information about the timing of the Foundation's grant cycles; and
- a review of the various aspects of a successful grant application.

Participants are encouraged to bring proposal ideas to the workshop for review and comment.

The workshop will be held on Tuesday, February 16 beginning at 12:00 at the Boys and Girls Club on South L Street. Lunch will be provided at no charge to those who register.

Reservations are required and may be made by calling the Foundation office at 765-962-1638 or emailing Rachel Hughes, Development Officer at rachel@waynecountyfoundation.org by February 9.
